Together

Isa 25:1,4 O LORD, you are my God; I will exalt you and praise your name, for in perfect faithfulness you have done marvelous things, things planned long ago... You have been a refuge for the poor, a refuge for the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat.

NIV

Isaiah lived in difficult times. Sin was rampant and the children of God needed to repent if things were going to improve. It is interesting that when the world is bad, disciples do not see themselves as the ones who need to repent. It is always the other fellow.

Yes, there is wickedness in the world, our world. Perhaps, we should look to our own actions and ask if we should repent.

God is loving and kind beyond our understanding. However, he wants his people to be righteous. Me. You. Not us or we, but individually examine our lives by the will of God. When speaking in the plural, it is easy to hide me. We and us, quickly become they and them. Shifting the focus off of me personally, to others.

Praise God for his love and gifts. Glorify the Savior for the relationship that mankind can have with God as the result of Jesus. Extol the Holy Spirit that dwells in every Christian to give strength and courage. Thank God for all he has provided for his child.

Rejoice in the family of God, the body of Jesus, the church of Christ, where we can grow in relationships and love. Friends in Christ who want us to succeed and grow into maturity that benefits everyone around us.

Rejoice in his imminent return.

Charles M Clodfelter

Speaker - Paul Gonzales

Sermon - My Father My Fortress

Speaker - Psalms 127:1

Paul's Peppery Notes

Fathers, we have a very special day coming up! I want to encourage you to make it a very special day. Don't allow this day to pass by without learning something new. Father's Day can come and go, but let's make this day a day that I can change something within my role as a father.

First, understand that my role as a father is one of the biggest responsibilities God has placed on man, but we have a big advantage the world doesn't have. Not that it's not available to them but for whatever reason they don't have it. The Bible is the very best guide book on how to be the best "Pop" ever. Read it and put everything into practice.

Second, this Sunday there will be a whole lot of compliments, gifts and maybe even taken out for a good meal (you pay of course!). There may even be some good advice that is given. Take the advice and analyze it and if it is good advice, make it a part of your life.

Third, be the very best example that you can be. That means, I start doing things I wasn't doing before, and I do away with things I shouldn't be doing. Again, Father's Day can come and go. Make this day the happiest day for you and yours (Psalm 127:1). Let's do it! Paul
