Together

"Self-respect is the fruit of discipline; and the sense of dignity grows with the ability to say no to oneself." - Abraham Joshua Heschel.

Society in recent years has tried to give self-respect to children by just saying it or even indulging them. In truth, we earn self-respect by gaining a level of ability or skill so that we have a confidence in self. I can do it.

Discipline is doing, but it is also, not doing. On occasion, we get so involved on doing that we miss the opportunities to say no. Our entire society focused on indulgence, we do not want to hear the word "no."

The effect is on everything, not just Christianity. Why are there so many obese people? Why are there so many addicts? Why are there so many dropouts? Self discipline means, we learn to control ourselves. A parent, teacher, coach, spouse or boss does not have to micro manage us. We have the inner strength to discipline ourselves.

Discipline means knowledge and control. We know how to do it and we have the courage or mental strength to carry it out. Discipline is learning, being taught knowledge and skill to accomplish a task.

There will always be a variance of skill or ability. Whatever you are good at doing, there is someone who can do it better and you could probably improve your skills as well.

Your discipline, confidence and self-respect will be challenged. It does not mean we should quit or give up. No we accept the challenge to move onto greater heights. You can do it, but only when you learn to say yes and no to the right questions.

Thank You

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Thank you very much of you generous participation in our "Big Heart Campaign". The pajamas which you gathered for us are safely stored in our commissary waiting to be distributed as needed.

Your partnership with us as we serve the boys and girls is such an encouragement to me personally, as well as to my entire staff. It strengthens us to know that you think of us, that you pray for us, and that you continue to share with us.

Please drop by the campus for a visit at any time convenient with your schedule. We would consider it an honor to show you around and let you see our work firsthand. Please call me if there is any way we can serve your congregation.

Dear Eastwood family,

The Russell family, Ida, Keith, Autumn and River, wish to thank, with all our hearts, every brother and sister who generously contributed time, money and items to finance Autumn's trip to Europe. We are over-whelmed with the love you have shown to our whole family. We will never forget the part you played enabling Autumn to achieve a dream come true!

We request prayers of all our brothers and sisters for Autumn as she travels to Europe. Please pray for Autumn's safe journey and that she will touch others with her love for Jesus.

Sermon - Legacy

Speaker - Deuteronomy 6:1 - 9

Paul's Peppery Notes

God never calls us to do anything without faithfully keeping his word and enabling us to do it. We are not always faithful to do what God tells us, but He remains faithful and stands by His word to fulfill what He has promised. Isaiah 46:11b, “What I have said, that will I bring about; What I have planned, that will I do”.

I want to challenge us to really meditate on where we are coming out short in doing God's will. Most of us probably have a good idea in what we want to do or get involved in, but we think that we just can't do it. Think of the children of Israel when they hit a dead end as they left Egypt. In their minds they were doomed. They probably concluded that God had abandoned His promise to them. The sea was in front, the murderous Egyptian army was behind them! Yet, God proved then, as He has ever since, that He is absolutely faithful to every word that he speaks to His children.

Regardless of what you are thinking or what you are doing, do not lose hope. No one has ever experienced unfaithfulness on God's part! Allow time for God to reveal his faithfulness to you. Someday you will reflect on what God has done and praise him for His absolute faithfulness to you. Now let's do it! Paul
