Together

Invite your friends to our Back To Church Sunday! This is the time of year when families are getting into a routine. Many are thinking about being in church, but don't know where they should go. You and I know they will go where they have friends. So - Invite your Friends!

Many friends and neighbors do not attend a worship service, invite them. Ask those who are not attached and are seeking a church home. Even if you think they are not interested because they never attend church, ask them. If you have a friend, ask them. If there is someone you would like to be your friend, ask them!

The people most likely to accept your invitation, are your friends. Next are those you know, but have not established those strong ties. Ask neighbors you wave and speak to as you drive by their house. Ask. No one can accept the invitation, if we do not ask.

Tell them where you usually sit and that you will be looking for them. Try to get a commitment.

Be early. You do not want your friends looking for you and you not be in your place. Speak to others. Make all feel welcome and at home. This is our time to extend the love of Jesus and acceptance people need.

Imagine how great it will be to have an auditorium full of people. It can happen, if we will all invite our friends. Your smile, kind invitation and the promise you will be waiting for them. This simple invitation may be the beginning of leading a friend or a family to Jesus. Do it! There are many ways to sow the seed of Jesus.

Paul's Peppery Notes

The decision making process can begin when young children start choosing what outfit they will wear or what type of fruit they would like for a snack, but their choices become more and more complex and carry greater consequences as they mature.

Pray for God to give you wisdom each day as you, parent the children He has entrusted upon you, and ask Him to help them make wise decisions. Encourage them to use common sense, weigh everything against scripture and live a holy life before God.

The Children's Home of Lubbock Dollar Days 2013

Each year we ask our Christian family to come together for Dollar Days in September. These funds are collected to purchase groceries for the children. More children than ever are coming to the Home for care, so we need your help more than ever! As each family in your congregation budgets to feed their own children, please we encourage you to help feed our boys and girls—they are depending on God's people. For more information go to e-mail address:

If you wish to help, please make your checks payable to

"The Children's Home of Lubbock".

If cash donations, please place the cash in an envelop and mark outside of the envelop, "for Children's Home", and place your check or envelop during Sunday's contributions.
