Together

It is not a bad idea to be prepared for a cataclysmic event. If you live in a flood prone area or where there is some other danger, be prepared. It is even a good idea to have several weeks of food and water for your family. You never know when a calamity could hit.

There is one event we all need to be prepared for its coming. The coming of Jesus Christ! Christians are not afraid or fearful of the coming of Jesus, we look forward with joyful anticipation. We stay ready by remaining faithful to Jesus. We encourage others to serve Jesus and follow His teaching.

Praise God, Jesus is on His way! It will be a wonderful time to be gathered with the saints from every time in history. It will be exciting to see the glory of the divine which will beyond anything we can imagine in this life.

What events have brought you joy in this life? Multiply them together and you will not come close to the JOY we will have in the coming of Jesus Christ. The celebration of the heavenly host along with the celebration of all the saints will be an continued experience because our time with Jesus will be an eternity. Of course, we look forward to the coming of Jesus!

Fear not the coming of Jesus, let the joy of that event carry us through the hard times of this life. When we know there is great reward, we are willing to suffer in order to receive that reward. We do it all the time. We diet to lose those extra pounds, we work hard to create something special. It is worth the effort. Stay prepared.

At His Post

When Pompeii was destroyed, many were buried in its ruins. These were later found in very different situations.

Some were in the streets as if they had been attempting to escape. Some were found in deep vaults as if seeking security. Some were found in lofty chambers as if trying to get above the lava.

Where did they find the Roman sentinel? He was standing at the city gate where he had been placed by his captain, with his hand still grasping the war weapon.

There, while the heavens threatened him; there, while the earth shook beneath him; there, while lava streams rolled, he had stood at his post; and there, after a thousand years had passed, was he still found.

May we as Christians stand to our duty, in the post at which our Captain has placed us.

Women in Missions

Dear Eastwood Church of Christ members,

Vasijas Ministry is a ministry that offers spiritual, physical and emotional renewal for Spanish-speaking Christian women, and equip them to share what they've learned with others. Women participate in our renewals at no cost. In the last three years, this ministry has reached over 800 women in the US, Mexico, Colombia and Venezuela.

A friend of this ministry, Diana Davis, will be hosting a Pampered Chef party through Facebook from September 1st through the 10th. 15% of the total sales will be donated to the Vasijas Ministry to be used for the Training Seminar and Ladies Renewal in November that will be held in Bucaramanga, Colombia.
