Together

The world is full of beauty. We see it with our own eyes and hear it with our own ears. There are also photos, recordings and video that are created and shared with us. It is a beautiful world. There is beauty in relationships: family, friends, fellow disciples. We are enveloped with beauty. The sad part is we can miss being aware of beauty.

“Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.” This is true in a double sense. One is, you may see beauty that I miss. Your cognition, background and experience cause you to notice, what others miss. You see beauty that others can’t see. Two is, the failure to see beauty because we are not looking to see it. If another person points out the beauty, we may see it. However, some are so full of anger, hatred, greed, grief, fear, distrust or jealousy: they can’t see beauty.

Attitude traverses everything about us. If we have a bad attitude, then everything we touch is bad. If we have a good attitude, then the bad times are handled for what they are: temporary and small compared to our Lord Jesus. Attitude founded on the love and mercy from Jesus gives us the vision to see the beauty around us.

Christians are not given the x-ray vision of the comic book character Superman. But, we are given the lens of Jesus Christ to see the world for what it truly is, the creation of God.

When God looks at you and me, he sees more than a fallen creation. He sees his children, made in his image, seeking to do the will of their father and doing the best they can as they live. He sees beauty. The same beauty you see when you look at your children or grandchildren, who are trying to be proficient in the skills of life. When you are handed a page of coloring, you don’t see marks outside the lines, you see beauty. You are beautiful to God.
