Together

July 27, 2003 was my first Sunday with the Eastwood family. Many things have happened in the past 14 years: individuals have believed and been born again - saved, individuals have ended their journey in this life to be with the Lord, couples have united in marriages, babies have been born, children have grown, families have moved to other cities. There have been wonderful times and there have been difficult times.

In all times, there has been faith. It is a joy to witness faith in the lives of our fellow disciples. Our greatest and most important faith is in Jesus the Christ, to hold on during challenging times. Serving and sacrificing when we are under attack by the evil one.

There has been faith in one another: husbands and wives who grow in their trust for one another becoming even closer and stronger in their commitment to each other. Christians who have come to the aid of others and each has learned to trust. There has been an increase in the idea of brotherhood and community.

None of us would be so arrogant as to claim perfection, but we might see some of our relationships and friendships as near perfection. It is not only good to have such a relationship, it is a joy to see others grow into a strong community of faith.

Eastwood is a strong community of faith and it is a joy to be a part of this with you. My thanks to those who are faithful in prayer for the Lord's body and Eastwood in particular. Also, for your prayers for the brothers and sisters, you are a blessing. It is our work Together as a family that keeps us united in purpose and impacts our community.

Your life as an active member of the Eastwood family is a part of our service to the Lord Jesus. We support one another in our service to reach others. Keep it up.

Thank You

Church of Christ in Eastwood!

Thank you for your continued support of the children. They are being fed both physically and spiritually and they continue to grow in their confidence in God's love for them. We give our Great and AWESOME God praise for you and the partnership we forge together. Many children and now single parented families are being given a new start on life once again. We pray you have a blessed summer and we look forward to seeing you next July.

7 Signs

The book of John focuses on seven of Jesus' miracles and a careful study of each provides with principles of encouragement.

Disappointment? Remember when Jesus addressed an embarrassing moment by turning water into wine? (John 2:1-11). He is still the one to turn to when life turns on us. "At my first defense no one stood with me, but all forsook me...But the Lord Stood with me, and strengthened me" (2 Timothy 4:16-17)

Doubts? Remember when Jesus—from a distance Healed a boy and told his father to return home, and the man went without question? (John 4:46-54). He is still the one in whom we place our faith and our dreams. After all, He is "Christ...the hope of glory" (Colossians 1:27).

Disabilities? Remember when Jesus healed a man that had been an invalid for thirty-eight years at the pool of Bethesda? (John 5:2-9). Because of His loving providence, we can still "be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might" (Ephesians 6:10), echoing the words of Paul, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Philippians 4:13)

Desires? Remember when He fed 5,000 with a little boy's sack lunch? (John 6:1-14). He still fills the spiritual desires of men and women who cry, "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Philippians 1:21).

Despair? Remember when the hand of Jesus reached out to Peter while he walked on water? (John 6:16-21; cf: Matthew 14:23-32). Aren't we thankful that His hand extends in our direction with the promise, "I will never leave you nor forsake you"? (Hebrews 13:5).

Darkness? Remember when He gave sight to a man blind from birth? (John 9:1-11). To man stumbling in the wretched darkness of Satan. He is still "the light of the world" (John 8:12).

Death? Remember when He stood outside the tomb of a friend and shouted amidst visible tears, "Lazarus, come forth"? (John 11:1-44). Better yet, there will come a day "in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice, and come forth" (John 5:28-29).

As we reflect on the miracles Jesus performed, are we not led to praise Him as "King of Kings and Lord of Lords"? (Revelation 17:14; 19:16). As we reflect on the multitude of ways He touches our lives for the better, are we not driven to our knees with the words of Thomas, "My Lord and my God? (John 20:28) —Dan Winkler
