Together

Save us, God of our salvation; gather us and rescue us from the nations so that we may give thanks to Your holy name and rejoice in Your praise. 1 Chron 16:35
Devote yourselves to prayer; stay alert in it with thanksgiving. Col 4:2

It is clear from scripture that believers are to be thankful. Gratitude is a natural response to the blessings that we receive. When we forget, overlook or take for granted the blessings we have, we become unappreciative for our blessings. A hymn we sing says, "Count your blessings." It is about looking at life and seeing even the smallest blessing that we have and being thankful to our God because he is the giver of all good and perfect gifts. James 1:17.

Pause for a moment and think of the many blessings you have in life.

Would your blessings include the gift of salvation? Relationships with others? The opportunity to serve in God's church? The ability to teach others and to bless the lives of others with your acts and gifts?

Yes, we want to be grateful for our physical blessings but every physical blessing is temporary. "Things" break, wear out and get lost. People pass on or move away. Even countries fall or are overtaken by other powers. They are a blessing and we should be thankful, but some blessings are eternal.

I am thankful that our nation has set aside a National Day of Thanksgiving! It is a time for review of ALL that we have and to thank God. As you prepare for this time, travel to be with family, work to have everything at its best, be thankful.

I am thankful for Eastwood, for its long service and many endeavors to share the gospel. I am thankful for the believer, God loving people who have been a part of this spiritual family. People who were here for a short time and those who were here for many years of faithful service. Thank you.
